CHRISTINA DEANGELIS

is a registered patent attorney concentrating in intellectual property litigation, including trademark, trade secret, patent and copyright litigation. Ms. DeAngelis began her legal career as an in-house legal intern at Bayer Corporation where she drafted and prosecuted chemical and biological patents. She later joined the intellectual property firm of Fleit, Kain, Gibbons, Gutman, Bongini & Bianco, P.L. where she was involved in all phases of intellectual property litigation and complex corporate litigation. Prior to joining Feldman Gale, Christina worked as an associate at Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, LLP and was an adjunct professor of media law at the Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale.

Ms. DeAngelis received her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, where she was the Managing Editor of the Journal of Law and Commerce and the recipient of the CALI Award for Excellence in Evidence. Before entering law school, Ms. DeAngelis worked at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center as a gene therapy research specialist where she focused on the development of a genetic treatment for arthritis. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in cell/molecular biology from Duquesne University.
