Nicole D. Galli focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation, including intellectual property litigation, and intellectual property counseling. Ms. Galli has extensive bench trial, jury trial and arbitration experience in a variety of subject matters, including patent matters. She practices before state and federal trial and appellate courts throughout the nation, administrative bodies (including the TTAB, the ITC and the FTC), and in various alternative dispute resolution forums, including international arbitration panels. Ms. Galli frequently litigates in jurisdictions employing local patent rules, including the Eastern District of Texas and the District of New Jersey.

Ms. Galli has litigated patent and patent licensing, trademark, copyright, trade secret, false advertising, consumer fraud, unfair competition, antitrust and general commercial matters and counsels clients in various aspects of intellectual property, including the emerging area of social media. She has handled matters for clients in a variety of industries including medical devices, software, consumer electronics, automotive, energy, hospitality, food and beverage, construction and manufacturing. Ms. Galli's clients range from small start-up companies to the largest national and international companies. She has also represented a number of cultural institutions and other non-profits.

Ms. Galli is active in community, civic and professional activities and has been recognized for her achievements. In 2003, she was named one of the Philadelphia Business Journal's "40 Under 40", received the Forum Award from the Forum of Executive Women and was named as one of the "Lawyers on the Fast Track" in Pennsylvania by American Lawyer Media. She has also been named a "Pennsylvania Super Lawyer" by Philadelphia Magazine every year since 2005.

Ms. Galli is a member of the board of directors and Second Vice President of Dance Affiliates, which co-presents the Dance Celebration series at the University of Pennsylvania's Annenberg Center, as well as other dance programs in the region. She also is a member of the Advisory Boards of The Career Wardrobe, a local nonprofit, and the Professional Women's Roundtable, an innovative networking group Ms. Galli co-founded in 2002. She is also a member of the Forum of Executive Women, where she serves on the Forum Award, Executives Suites and Public Sector Leadership Committees. Finally, Ms. Galli is a member of the Alliance of Women Entrepreneurs, where she serves on the Membership Committee.

Ms. Galli is an active member of the Philadelphia Bar Association where she is co-chair of the Association's Intellectual Property Committee. She also is a member of the American Bar Association, where she chairs the CLE Teleconferences Committee of the Section of Intellectual Property Law. In addition, Ms. Galli is a member of and serves on several committees for the Federal Circuit Bar Association and is a member of the Justinian Society. Ms. Galli is also a frequent speaker and author on a variety of topics including patent litigation and trial techniques (including local patent rules), patent damages and social media.
