James A. Gale, a founding partner of Feldman Gale PA, is a registered patent attorney. Over the past 25 years he has focused his practice on matters particular to intellectual property counselling, prosecution, registration and litigation. Mr Gale has represented clients in cases involving patents, trademarks, copyright, theft of trade secrets, unfair competition and covenants not to compete, in both district and federal courts, in many jurisdictions nationwide. In addition, he has handled hundreds of injunctions around the United States.

Mr Gale is currently the chair of the Florida Bar's inaugural committee for intellectual property law certification. This committee will oversee the first board certification processes for intellectual property law in the United States. In addition, he has served as chair of the Florida Bar intellectual property law committee.

A Martindale Hubble 'AV'-rated attorney, Mr Gale is ranked as one of the top 10 intellectual property lawyers in the United States by the United States Lawyer Ranking and, for the third consecutive year, has been recognised for intellectual property law by the Best Lawyers in America. He also appears in Florida Super Lawyers "Top Attorneys in Florida, Intellectual Property Law", Florida Trend's Legal Elite's "Top Lawyers in Florida, Intellectual Property", and the South Florida Legal Guide's "Top Lawyers and Law Firms in South Florida".

He was educated at the University of Florida college of law (JD, 1983) and the University of Florida (BS Microbiology and Cell Sciences, 1980).
