SOUTH FLORIDA LEGAL GUIDE NAMES FELDMAN GALE ATTORNEYS, FIRM TO BEST LAWYER LISTING

MIAMI, FL — The intellectual property law firm of Feldman Gale is pleased to announce that James A. Gale, Jeffrey D. Feldman, Lawrence Gordon and Steven E. Eisenberg have been named top attorneys in the 2006 South Florida Legal Guide. In addition, Samuel Lewis and Stephanie Alvarez have been named Up and Comers and the firm has been listed as a top firm in South Florida. This annual publication lists the top 1 percent of lawyers in South Florida as determined by ballot research and consultation with trusted sources in the legal community.

Gale, who was named a top lawyer in patent litigation and trademark infringement and co-founder of the firm, has represented companies in cases involving patents, trademarks and copyrights, and generally in the areas of commercial law, covenants not to compete, theft of trade secrets, distributor and supplier contracts, sales rep. contracts, product liability issues and federal preemption issues.

Feldman, who was named a top lawyer in complex commercial litigation and intellectual property and co-founder of the firm, focuses his practice in the areas of complex commercial disputes, civil RICO litigation and intellectual property litigation. He has litigated extensively on cases involving patent and trademark infringement, gray marketing, product mislabeling, fraud and false advertising.

Gordon, who was named a top lawyer in arbitration and mediation and is a shareholder in the firm, focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation, intellectual property law, federal litigation and civil appeals.

Eisenberg, who was also named a top lawyer in commercial litigation and intellectual property and is a shareholder in the firm, concentrates his practice on intellectual property litigation, entertainment law, and complex commercial litigation, including trademark and copyright infringement, trade secrets and related matters.

Lewis, who was named an Up and Comer for technology and intellectual property and is a shareholder in the firm, handles both litigation and transactional matters, and has represented a wide variety of clients with technology-related issues.

Alvarez, who was named an Up and Comer for intellectual property litigation and patent prosecution and is a shareholder in the firm, focuses her practice on all aspects of intellectual property litigation, patent prosecution, trademark prosecution and the procurement of domain names.
